LIBRARY REPORT.

At the annual March meeting of 1892 the town of Dalton voted to accept the provisions of the State law in regard to a public library, and voted the annual appropriation required by law; also an additional appropriation of $100; in addition the Grange appropriated $25 for books for the library, all of which has been expended for books, giving the town a library of 489 volumes.

The library was opened and the first book given out June 25, 1892, and at present there are 69 cards in use. The care of the library has cost the town nothing for the year just closed.
